Commands

Intro to Linux

The commands we learnt were ls, mkdir, ls -ltr, rm, rm -r, cat, vim, date, cd, pwd, history

History Command

The History command shows us the output of all commands that we have run so far.

ls and ls -ltr

These commands list the files within my directory

Shortcut Ctrl + C

Cancels any running command or used to get the prompt

Shortcut Ctrl + R

Reverse search historical commands

Shortcut Ctrl + L

Clear screen

mkdir

Create a directory

rm and rm -r

Removes files and rm -r removes directory

cat

Shows the contents of the files

pwd

Present working directory

cd

Changes the current directory

vim

Vim is editing tool

date

Shows the date and time